The Whitsunday Islands

World-famous Whitehaven Beach, secluded bays, tropical marine life, bush walks, purest white silica sand, the list goes on. To best explore our 74 islands, you're going to need take a cruise, go sailing and explore.

The Whitsunday Islands are at the very heart of the Great Barrier Reef, World Heritage Site. Only 8 of the islands are habited, leaving the other 66 to National Park land.

Sailing With Us

Since 1985 we have been offering Whitsunday sailing holidays. In fact, we are one of the original and oldest continuously operating tourism companies in the Whitsundays.

This photo shows the fleet in 1999.

We've grown a little since then.

Over 500,000 people have enjoyed a remarkable holiday with us.

So what are you waiting for?

Tour Highlights

During each sailing adventure you'll experience the breathtaking views at Hill Inlet lookout, via a guided bush walk; explore the extraordinary pure silica sand at Whitehaven Beach; and go snorkelling in the dazzling turquoise waters, brimming with marine life.

On the overnight tours, expect a beautiful Whitsundays sunset and stargazing.

Travel to The Whitsundays

Airlie Beach, the gateway to the Whitsundays, is located in North Queensland. You can drive or get an express bus service such as the Greyhound. It is 1150 KMs north of Brisbane and 630 KMs south of Cairns. You can fly into Whitsunday Coast Airport (PPP) at Proserpine. Then it's a 30-minute shuttle or taxi to Airlie Beach. Rail service to Proserpine with Bus or Taxi transfer to Airlie Beach.

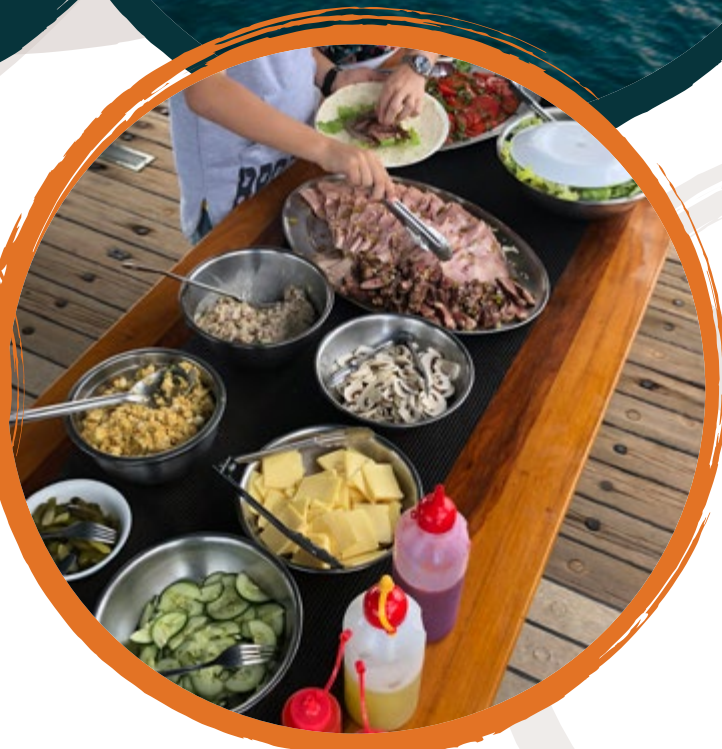

Spare Evening in Airlie Beach?

Start your Whitsunday adventure with a sunset cruise around the local coastline. Enjoy a drink as you take in the beautiful surroundings

Food Glorious Food

Never go hungry with our freshly prepared home-style meals using quality ingredients, and locally sourced seasonal fruit and vegetables.

Learn to Sail in the Whitsundays

We offer internationally recognised sailing courses that provide opportunities to pursue a hobby or a new career path. Sheltered waters, a year-round temperate climate, and stunning backdrop makes the Whitsundays the ideal place to learn to sail.

Learn to Earn, our most popular program, offers a pathway to future employment in the marine industry.

Over 23 days, trainees gain knowledge and practical skills that will propel them towards a maritime career.

Learning and working on local vessels, previous trainees have progressed to become qualified skippers working in exotic destinations around the world.

International Yachtmaster Training (IYT) qualifications are included for the Sail Learn to Earn Program.

Come sailing - hoist and trim the sails, take the helm. Take in the breathtaking views of Whitehaven Beach. Snorkel with the vibrant, tropical fish and fringing coral reefs. Leave the real world behind, live in the moment. See mesmerising sunsets and star filled nights. Meet new friends and bring home memories you'll cherish forever. Your adventure in the Whitsunday is waiting.
